

LESTER CARON IS RELEASED ON BOND

Bound Over to Federal Grand Jury in Indianapolis by U. S. Commissioner Moores

INVESTIGATION TO BE MADE

Postoffice Inspectors Unable to Find Loof From Local Office Reported to be Buried

Lester Caron, Rushville youth, who was arrested here late Monday upon request of postoffice inspectors, and who was removed late yesterday to Indianapolis, was released from jail in that city on $7,500 bond after a hearing before United States Commissioner Charles W. Moores, who bound him over to the federal grand jury for an investigation.

The local man is held for an investigation of the robbery of the postoffice here on March 9, 1921, and it is understood that he had confided his secret in a friend, Oren Snyder, son of John Snyder 827 West Eighth street.

According to an Indianapolis newspaper today, Caron had been keeping company with Mildred Snyder, a sister of the companion mentioned above and the father, John Snyder offered objections.

The report is that during a period of indiscretion, Caron confided in young Snyder, and took him to a place near the White bridge, over Flatrock, and near the East Hill cemetery, where Snyder was shown some stamps, which Caron is reported to have remarked was a part of the loof taken from the postoffice here.

According to the reports, this incident happened several weeks ago, and in the course of events Snyder's parents were informed of the affair, and the father is said to have warned Caron to leave town, or else he would report the alleged hiding place of the supposed postoffice loof.

It is known that Caron left about six weeks ago, and came back again week before last, and it is presumed that Snyder called the attention of the postoffice inspectors to the affair.

The four inspectors, headed by W. C. Ela, and assisted by S. P. McLaughlin, W. R. Briggs and A. S. Kelly, were here Monday afternoon and ordered Caron arrested.

On Monday night young Snyder and his father were summoned before them, and the facts were laid out as to what they knew about the affair, according to the report.

Late yesterday, the four inspectors and young Snyder went in a machine to the place where Caron was said to have produced the loof, and a search was made, but it is understood that it had been removed, and could not be found.

Oren Snyder, the young man who is mentioned in the affair, is also held on a paternity case in Justice Stech's court and will be bound over to the circuit court on that charge on $500 bond. The paternity proceedings were brought by Mabel Jackson of near Greenfield, and Justice Stech heard the preliminary evidence Monday afternoon, and will complete his record by binding him to the higher court for disposal, he stated.

SOVIET RUSSIA ADDS TO ENGLAND'S WRATH

Captures Another Vessel Flying British Flag on The Heels of Ultimatum From London

MAY LEAVE LAUSANNE PARLEY

London, May 9—Soviet Russia's consideration of an ultimatum from Great Britain that threatens cancellation of the Russo-British treaty agreement, was watched anxiously by governments of Europe today.

The Russians are reported preparing to withdraw from the Lausanne conference this week-end. Already they have added fuel to the British flame of wrath by capturing still another ship flying the British flag. They have announced that trial of Metropolitan Tikhon former patriarch of all Russia, is to start May 16.

A Russian gunboat today captured another English trawler off Murmansk, alleging it was fishing in Russian territorial waters, according to a Central News dispatch from Sull.

The subject of seizure of British trawlers by Russian craft was one of the principal subjects in a ten day ultimatum sent Moscow by the British government yesterday. Great Britain demanded compensation.

It is reported that a Russian reply will suggest arbitration.

Caught in Snowdrifts

Elmer Kellam of Orange township reported today that he had to take his team of horses and pull two motor vehicles out of snowdrifts near his home this morning.

The Schlosser Brothers creamery truck was the first to get fastened in a drift in the road, and the next victim was Billie Bob Vansickle of Anderson township. Both machines were unable to pull out on their own power and the help of the team was necessary before they could proceed.

Herbert Hoover Delivers Address Before The United States Chamber of Commerce

SEES NEED FOR CONFIDENCE

Must Get Minds Away From Pre-War Standards and Volume of Business Would be Normal

New York, May 9—Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce discussed the economic measures needed for "holding on to prosperity" in an address by that name delivered here Tuesday night before the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Dealing with the present situation, Secretary Hoover praised caution, stressed the need for confidence and courage as well, and marked emphatically the difference between caution and timidity. He stated that there is no comparison of the present situation with 1920. This is prosperity and can be preserved; that was a wasteful boom. Mr. Hoover outlined the essential economic differences between the two periods. To understand our economic position and take advantage of it, he said, "we must get our minds away from the notion that pre-war standards of living and volume of business would be normal now."

The broader and deeper essentials involved in the planning of commerce and industry to keep the nation permanently prosperous constituted the major theme of the address. Great shifts in the economic stream in the United States, the secretary held, have made necessary the realization of new forces to be met and conditions to which we must accommodate our industry and commerce.

He cited the increase in efficiency of production of from 10 to 15 per cent per capita since the period immediately preceding the war as one important phase of the necessity for new standards of business thought. A selection of industries furnishing commodities raising the plans of the average citizen's comfort and convenience of life in the past decade shows a growth of 60 percent. "We could today supply each person the same amount of commodities that he consumed ten years ago," Mr. Hoover said, "and lay off about 2,000,000 people from work." The increased spread in the consumption of conveniences and comforts, he

STICKS IN SNOWDRIFT

Gale Pike, living south of Rushville, stuck in a snowdrift
while coming to Rushville May 9, 1923.

Some time in the far distant future some of the old residents will repeat this story to the young folks with a relish and they will think that he had a bad dream.

But it's true. Snow had drifted across the road and Mr. Pike, who was not driving fast, had no idea of his machine stalling in a snowdrift until it suddenly came, to a halt. He backed up this machine and made a running dash through the barricade of snow, successfully.

John H. Kiplinger Asserts Germany

ORGY OF SPENDING PREVAILS

Rushville Attorney, Just Back From Europe, Says German Farmers
Are "In Clover"

(By United Press)

Washington, May 9.—"Only a political revolution can prevent the chaos into which Germany is now rushing headlong," according to John Kiplinger, of Rushville, Ind., a member of the Wiesbaden office of the American reparation commission, who arrived in Washington today.

"An orgy of spending is precipitating this condition in Germany," Kiplinger said. The Germans spend what money they have today for tomorrow it may be worth only half as much or even less.

Those with fixed incomes and laborers, he says, are the greatest sufferers in Germany. A stenographer receives about 90,000 marks, $4.00 a month, and often has to support her mother on this salary.

Real estate men find no opportunity for profiteering in Germany. There are virtually no more mortgages, according to Kiplinger, and the farmers are "in clover."

"Jazz and hard drinking have accompanied a spirit of recklessness," Kiplinger said. He declared that the former crown prince's son, William and that Von Hindenburg has a tree

BRIGANDS READY TO MAKE BARGAIN

Chinese Bandits Reported To Be Ready To Take Whatever
Ransom They Can Get

WILLING TO ACCEPT $50,000

Meanwhile Fear For Safety Of Those Still Held Captive Increases—
Short Of Food

Pekin, May 9.—(3:30 p. m.)—Pressed on all sides by government troops, Chinese brigands who wrecked and robbed the crack Shanghai-Pekin express, carrying off foreign men and women as hostages, are reported today ready to make their best bargain and take what ransom they are offered.

From the bombastic demand for $1,000,000 first asked, the bandits now are willing to accept $50,000, according to advices from Lin Cheng.

Meanwhile fear for the safety of those still held captive increases, for the entire brigand camp is short of food and is suffering hardships.

All evidence from the "zone" to which the herd withdrew its prisoners Monday indicates that at least four women still are prisoners, a Miss Lillian Audits, her aunt, Miss Seaton and Miss Fleming, a British subject their companion. These had reservations on the wrecked express and prisoners who escaped the bandit camp described a woman they left behind as having white hair and of the general appearance of Miss Seaton.

The Mexican minister here states he is positive that Manuel Anciera Verrea, a rich Mexican of Guadalajara, Mexico and wife, were captured by the bandits and have not yet been released.

The brigands are moving further into the hills with their prisoners away from the railroad. Besides making negotiations for release of the captives more difficult, this move also makes increasingly perilous the journey to safety of those who may be freed.

Negotiations are under way between the Shantung provisional government and the chiefs of the kidnapers, through which it is hoped here, release of all the captives may be effected within 24 hours.

The story of the first demand for a million dollars ransom has been clarified.

AN APPEAL FOR CLEMENCY

Filed Before State Pardon Board
For Herman Osborne

In the list of prisoners who have applied to the state pardon board for clemency, appears the name of Herman J. Osborne of Rushville, who was convicted here September 15, 1921 on a charge of vehicle taking, and given a sentence of from 3 to 5 years at the reformatory.

Osborne and Glen Downey, another local man, were given a sentence for stealing an automobile, and attempted to drive it through to Cincinnati, but mired down south of Liberty, and the sheriff of that county arrested them. Osborne and Downey each drew the 3 to 5 year sentences after pleading guilty to the charge.

COURT TAKES CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT

Hears Evidence On Complaint Of Commercial Investment Co.,
Against Carl Oneal

TWO JUDGMENTS BY DEFAULT

A divorce suit of Adah M. Dudley of Hancock county against George W. Dudley, has reached the circuit court here on a change of venue from Shelbyville, this being the third court in which the action has been filed. The case was filed first in Greenfield, then sent to Shelbyville and has reached here on the last change.

This morning the circuit court was occupied with the evidence in the case of the Commercial Investment Company against Carl Oneal, a complaint on a trade acceptance and following the introduction of evidence the matter was taken under advisement.

The case of Max Weil, et al., against Albert Capp, et al., was heard and the defense defaulted, and judgment on an account amounting to $106.50 and costs was rendered; in another case in which the same plaintiffs were suing Walter Capp, et al., the defendant defaulted and judgment on an account amounting to $310.50 and costs was rendered by the court.

Sticks to The Straw Lid

S. B. Groom, book keeper at the Innis, Pearce furniture plant offices and secretary of the Kiwanis club, thought spring had come and dragged out a straw hat the other day. Tuesday he had to take the jibes and chidings of his friends, but he was adamant. Mr. Groom declares that he will wear the straw lid regardless, come what may, and if the summer headgear survived the wind, rain and snow today, it was agreed that he had a fighting chance to make good on his threat.

CROPS NOT HURT BY COLD, BELIEF

Though Temperature Falls Below, Freezing, No Indications Of Damage Are Found

MERCURY IS RISING TODAY

Fall Of Thirty Degrees And Snowfall Of Two And Three-Fourths Inches On Tuesday

Though the temperature was below freezing Tuesday night and early today, it is not believed that fruit and vegetables have been damaged by the abnormally cold weather for this season of the year.

Slowly rising temperature today indicated that the end of the stormy period was in sight. Additional indications that the storm was passing were found in reports from the east which said that the unseasonable weather had hit that section today.

The thermometer recorded a fall of thirty degrees Tuesday, according to Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer for the government, who resides at Maury, a few miles east of Rushville. The mercury stood at sixty degrees above zero Tuesday morning and during the night hit thirty.

Two and three-fourth inches of snow had fallen up until this morning, according to Mr. Kirkwood, and snow continued to fall today, though the most of it melted as quickly as it struck the ground. The snow clung to trees, buildings, fences and other objects, however, and gave the landscape an appearance of winter.

Mr. Kirkwood predicted that the temperature would not fall to freezing tonight on account of the indications for warmer weather. Although it was below freezing last night, there was no frost, according to the weather observer, because conditions was not right for it.

Today Coldest on Record

Indianapolis, Ind., May 9—Today was the coldest day on record for this late in May, the local weather bureau reported. The lowest temperature recorded was 31 degrees at 6, 7 and 8 o'clock this morning.

The temperature is expected to continue low with frost tonight and moderating weather tonight.

Three inches of snow were reported at Warsaw. The storm assumed blizzard-like proportions and was still sweeping over the northern part of the state, inflicting heavy damage to fruit trees.

Thousands of families, anticipating warm May weather, were without fuel. Physicians issued warnings against the possibility of a pneumonia epidemic.

At the Indianapolis Motor speedway, the Durant racing squad, including Jimmy Murphy, who won the 500-mile classic last year, arrived with straw hats, silk shirts, and Palm Beach suits. They shivered in blankets and borrowed overcoats instead of tuning up their machines for trial runs.

Snow was reported throughout the southern part of the state as far south as Vincennes. There was no frost in this region, due to the strong wind throughout the night.

Damage to the fruit crop will not be great, according to Frank N. Wallace, entomologist for the state department of conservation.

"It will take much colder weather

ROUND-UP OF CRIMINALS

Indianapolis Detectives Ordered To Hold Them On Vagrancy Charges

Indianapolis, Ind., May 9.—Detectives today launched a round-up of known criminals in Indianapolis to have them go to work or leave the city.

Orders to arrest all men known to have criminal records on charges of vagrancy were issued by John Mudden, detective inspector.

Those who can prove they are employed will be released. Those who cannot will be ordered out of the city, Mullin said.

"I understand there is plenty of work for everybody in this country today and I don't want any of the criminal class loafing around Indianapolis," Mullin said.

AMERICAN SEEDS SENT TO FRANCE

"Good Will Delegates" to be Used For Reforesting Battle Areas in France Where U. S. Fought

PRESENTED BY CHAS. PACK

To be Turned Over to Commissioner of Agriculture in Paris And Will be Placed in Nurseries

New York, May 9.—"Good will delegates," millions of them, sailed from this port today for France.

These "good will delegates" are American tree seeds presented by Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Tree Association of Washington, D. C., to the French government for reforesting battle areas where Americans fought. A similar shipment was turned over to the British Embassy at Washington a few days ago.

Today's shipment had been presented to Ambassador Jusserand in Washington and here M. Barret, the acting consul general received them from Pack. The seeds will be turned over to the French Commissioner of Agriculture in Paris and will be placed in nurseries until such time as ready for transplanting as seedlings.

"Like a great standing army row on row, this seed when seedlings will be planted on French battle fields," said Pack in turning over the seeds to M. Barret. "But this standing army will not be waiting any zero hour or order to charge. This good will army will heal the scars of war and I hope help in some measure to bring the nations of the earth more closely together."

Today's shipment consists of Sitka Spruce, Colorado Fir, Honey Locust, Cypress and Monterey Pine. The shipment to Great Britain will be taken in charge by Lord Lovat of the British Forestry Commission and be placed in nurseries in Ireland, Scotland and England afterward to find their places in the Forest areas Great Britain cut down for war needs. Wonderful results have been obtained from the Douglas Fir shipments that have been made and these countries are anxious to experiment with other American tree seed.

ADVICE ON WAY TO KEEP PROSPERITY

maintained, is desirable and does not represent extravagance, but progress.

The strategy of business in the method of handling our vast gold reserves so as to make for safety against inflation, the tremendous need for increased private construction throughout the country and the relief to be given to private construction by the retardation of public works, the need of a policy in agricultural exports which will accommodate our farmers to the European situation, the need for further growth in efficiency in production and distribution in order that by continued lowering of costs we can replace agricultural exports with manufactured exports, the effect that shortage of transportation, intermittent character of the coal industry and other large commercial problems have upon our future production costs, were all discussed.

Examples were given of the work by the Department of Commerce in simplification of practices and elimination of waste in industries through cooperation with the industries themselves. "I have recently received a statement from one single group," Secretary Hoover said "estimating that the savings in production cost in that trade already exceed $25,000,000 per annum". Requests to the Department of Commerce for business assistance, advice, and information have risen in 18 months from a few hundred daily to more than 3,000 daily.

Government has a definite relationship to the advance and maintenance of prosperity, "not as an agency for production and distribution of commodities, nor as an economic dictator, but as the greatest contributor in the determination of fact and of cooperation with industry and commerce in the solution of its problems."

The preservation of initiative and the safeguarding of the rewards of individual effort, character and ability are keystones, the Secretary said, which must be preserved, "for when all is said and done the finer flowers of civilization do not grow from the cellars of poverty any more than they grow from the palaces of extravagance. They grow from the fostering comfort and well-being of the whole of great peoples."

to kill the crop," he said. Cherries have set. Apples and peaches should not be greatly damaged, although apple trees are now in bloom in Central Indiana.

"People who will take care of their trees will find that the yield will not be greatly reduced."

Temperatures Abnormally Low

Chicago, May 9.—A "May blizzard" that swept the middle-west left abnormally low temperatures, damaged fruit and vegetables and demoralized Great Lakes shipping in its wake today.

The storm which was comprised of snow, hail, sleet, rain and wind in different localities over a dozen or more states, was followed by cold winds, clearing skies and temperatures of 23 to 30, that according to predictions, will moderate this afternoon.

Fruit damage was reported heaviest in Nebraska, Illinois and the South central portions of the central west. Freezing temperatures were declared to have killed many early spring gardens in the northwest. One man, Wm. R. Dohring was killed at Pana, Ill., when blown into the water while fishing. Two lake vessels were reported grounded near White Fish point.

Other ships in the upper lakes were held in port.

The abnormal weather reached as far south as Texas where hail fell and Kentucky were frost and snow damaged vegetables and fruit. It was the latest snow storm in a score or more years in the latter state.

Ice covered ponds and lakes in the northwest where planting in the spring wheat belt was stopped. Heavy snow fell in Chicago and northern Illinois and damage from frost was reported from Kansas and Missouri. Michigan was lashed by the new storm.

RELEASED BY CHINESE BRIGANDS

Miss Lucy T. Aldrich, sister-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and daughter of the late United States Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, captured by Chinese bandits who held up a Shanghai-Pekin express train near the Shantung border and carried off more than 100 passengers, many of them Americans; later released, with other women passengers, and suffering from exposure at Pin Cheng, near the scene of the hold-up.

The cold wave was over the eastern part of the United States today.

Sun On "Vacation"

Washington, May 9.—"Topsy-turvy" weather predicted by scientific experts here as a result of the sun's "vacation" was in evidence today as a cold wave made the east and middle west shiver, while California, Arizona and other western states baked under abnormally high temperature.

Cold weather in the east will continue throughout today and tonight with slowly rising temperatures tomorrow, the weather bureau here indicated.

Warmer in Northeast

St. Paul, Minn., May 9.—Bright sunshine and a rising temperature today brought relief from the unusual cold weather of the last two days.

Strong winds prevented heavy damage from frost in many sections last night.

From below freezing, the temperature rose to 40 degrees early today.

Ohio Crop Not Damaged

Columbus, Ohio, May 9.—Cloudy weather is believed to have saved Ohio's fruit crop when a flare back of winter hit the state early today.

Freezing in West Virginia

Charleston, W. Va., May 9.—High winds, accompanied by freezing temperatures prevailed in West Virginia today.

"QUEEN" MARY SUMMONED

Wife of "King" Benjamin Ordered to Testify in Husband's Defense

St. Joseph, Mich., May 9.—"Queen" Mary Purnell was informed to appear before the House of David investigation and defend her husband "King" Benjamin, against his nemesis.

Queen Mary is to appear today and face Mrs. Hazel Wuerth, who charges she "vamped" Benjamin away from his first wife and that the "seventh son of God", as Benjamin is called, indulged in immoral practice with young girls at Shiloh.

Attempt will be made to compel the witness to divulge Benjamin's whereabouts.

SUGAR PRICES ARE LOWER

Selling At 10 Cents A Pound In Some Indianapolis Groceries

Indianapolis, Ind., May 9.—Sugar prices at some Indianapolis groceries were lower today. One firm was selling granulated sugar at 10 cents a pound as compared with 11 and 12 cents last week.

Local dealers say the boycott on sugar is having little effect here and that price reductions are due to a drop on the wholesale market.

Leaders of women's organizations which entered the boycott declared, however, that the cut in retail prices is due to be boycotted, and that they will continue their campaign to restrict the use of sugar until it shows an even greater decline.

Beyond the Three-Mile Limit

More than 12 hours of continuous dancing is prohibited in New York now. So these terpsichorean demons danced onto a truck, thence into a launch and went out beyond the three-mile limit where the law couldn't touch them. But they all succumbed to seasickness before they could set a new marathon dance record.

AMUSEMENTS

Today Only At Mystic

In a brass bound box a lovely girl kept the secret of her invention, an invisible deep sea light which was sought by all other governments. The agents of these governments wanted the secret so badly that armed men threatened her life at every turn. Both she and the secret would surely have been lost but for the aid of a brilliant author who had gone to the country for "rest, peace and quiet."

The ill the author thought he had and the frayed condition of his nerves were soon forgotten and he later found the doctor was right who said—"What you really need is a wife."

William Russell, the popular Fox star, plays the part of the author, with Carmel Myers as the girl, in "Good-by, Girls," may be seen at the Mystic Theatre today.

Director Jerome Storm, cameraman Joe August and an exceptional cast have turned out a picture of artistic beauty and skillful portrayal that will furnish entertainment for the most blasé.

1923 PROGRAM CALLS FOR MANY BRIDGES

Structures In Fifty-Nine Counties Will Cost Approximately $3,214,400 It Was Estimated

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO AID

Indianapolis, Ind., May 9.—The 1923 bridge building program of the state highway commission calls for 227 bridges in fifty-nine counties to cost approximately $3,214,400, of which $1,045,660 will be provided by the federal government, according to announcement by John D. Williams, highway director. Bridge plans were prepared by William J. Titus, chief bridge engineer and assistants. Mr. Williams expressed the belief that not all work outlined will be started this year.

Ninety-six bridge projects, most of which are new structures, will be built at a cost of $2,091,200 by the state and federal government each paying half the cost. The remainder of the projects will be paid for by the state alone.

The commission is also to provide inspection for a bridge over Eel river in Clay county to be built by the county at a cost of approximately $50,000.

Thirty-six of the federal aid bridges cost $15,000 or more, the largest and most expensive costing $180,000. Seventeen of the state projects will cost $15,000 or more going as high as $100,000.

After 8 Weeks You Must Change the Feed

For the first 8 weeks, Conkey's Buttermilk Starting Feed is the proper feed, scientifically, for chicks, but Growing Chicks Must Have a Different Feed

They must have more protein than the little chicks can stand. The same feed cannot serve for both purposes—for little chicks and for growing fowls—if you expect to get the best results. That's why Conkey makes

Conkey's
THE ORIGINAL
Buttermilk
Growing Mash

This is the great developing feed that most successful poultrymen use to bring their fowls quickly to early maturity—that insures early broilers and layers. Just right in protein and low in fibre. It is a wonderful bone and flesh builder. Feed it for rapid and certain results.

Conkey's Buttermilk Starting Feed

Should always be fed for the first 8 weeks. It is an appetizing combination of pure, sweet grain and concentrated sanitary Buttermilk combined by a special process. Conkey uses Semi-Solid Buttermilk only—never dried Buttermilk.

PURE RELIGION—Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this. To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unstained from the world.—James 1: 27.High Cost of Dishonesty

We hear frequent condemnation of the high cost of living, but seldom has any concern been shown about the high cost of dishonesty, that has grown to be an alarming problem that demands solution. Last year an army of burglars, robbers, embezzlers, forgers, confidence men, bucket-shop operators, and common thieves levied a tax on the United States that is estimated by one of the large surety companies to aggregate $3,325,000,000.

This is approximately equal to the entire internal revenue receipts of the federal government for the last fiscal year and is the equivalent of a per capita tax on the entire population of the country of more than $30. The items in this appalling bill which crooks collected in one year in the United States are: Stock frauds and frauds, and confidence games, $2,000,000,000; burglary and theft, $525,000,000; embezzlement and defalcation, $125,000,000; fraudulent bankruptcy and credit swindles, $100,000,000; bad debts, owing wholesale and retail merchants, $150,000,000; worthless checks cashed by merchants, $100,000,000; forgery, $25,000,000; graft, looting of the public domain and conversion of public property, $200,000,000.

The expert who made the estimate says that the total is probably nearer $4,000,000,000. Another authority fixes the first item in the list at $3,000,000,000 instead of $2,000,000,000 and insists that he is conservative.

We even have pirates who operate in and about the harbors. In New York harbor alone piracy amounted to $50,000,000 in one year and in the other seaports it was probably at least half that sum.

In a twelve-month period the railroads of the United States paid claims totaling more than $20,000,000 for thefts of freight, and this could not be said to represent the actual losses.

Automobile thefts run into the startling figures of $100,000,000. Automobile theft insurance, which was something less than 1 percent of the valuation of automobiles years ago, is now five or six percent.

Ten train hold-ups and 20 mail-truck robberies in one year netted bandits a haul of United States mail valued at more than $3,000,000.

A Blue "Red"

The second attempt of the state to convict the Michigan communists of criminal syndicalism met with better success than in the trial of W. Z. Foster. Charles E. Rutherford, an evader of the draft and a war obstructer, was found guilty. The first Foster trial resulted in a disagreement of the jury, and it is understood the government will immediately proceed with the second trial.

Although the proceedings have been under the laws of Michigan, the case has been largely worked up by agents of the federal department of justice, and it is to them that most of the credit is due for obtaining the conviction. The department is entitled to the gratitude of every good American for the energetic campaign it is waging against the Red menace. According to reports, the funds at the disposal of the Reds for the corruption of our citizens is far in excess of the appropriations of congress to combat the evil.

The inherent good sense of Americans must be relied upon to meet most of the insidious communist influence, while the federal government deals with the more flagrant cases like those in Michigan.

FIFTEEN YEARS

From The Daily Republican
Saturday, May 9, 1908

The Rushville crowd returned from Lebanon last night just a bit disheartened over the result of the oratorical contest, for the judges saw fit to only give our contestant, Miss Louise Mauzy, fourth place in the contest. And this, too, in spite of the fact that she was applauded longer and louder by the immense gathering, and a large majority of the audience favored her for the first place.

At the meeting of the Brotherhood last night at the First Presbyterian church the following officers were elected: J. L. Cowing, president; Bert Mullin, first vice president; A. E. FOOTBALL LOOMS IN MANY SCHOOLS

Schools Cannot Play Basketball as Early in Season, Giving More Time to Outdoor Play

MANY REASONS ASSIGNED

More High Schools in State Will Have Teams on the Field Next Fall, is the Report

By HEZE CLARK

Indianapolis, Ind., May 9.—More high schools will be represented on the gridiron in Indiana by a football team in 1923 than in any previous year. The splendid success of the modern football rules in making an interesting and open type of game and in preventing injuries is to a great extent responsible for this.

Another important factor is that the coaches and managers of the high school teams have come to realize the value of experienced officials in all branches of athletics. In football efficient officials prevent injuries and rough, unfair play.

Another factor is that the Indiana State High School Athletic association, with more than 600 schools as members, has taught the value of true sportsmanship. Limiting the number of games permitted on a basketball schedule for an Indiana high school, has caused the athletic directors to take up football to fill the early part of the athletic calendar of the school year.

For years, the two Gary high schools, the two Terre Haute high schools, and two high schools in Evansville have had football teams.

Other cities famous for their high school football teams are: Warsaw, Sheridan, Linton, New Albany, South Bend, Michigan City, Decatur, Richmond, Clinton, Brazil, Greenfield, Bloomfield, Sullivan, Noblesville, Peru, Elwood, Ft. Wayne, Wabash, Rensselaer, Princeton, Logansport, New Castle and Knightstown.

After some years without football in the Indianapolis high schools, Shortridge, Technical and Manual were again permitted to have gridiron teams four years ago. The clean splendid way in which the games have been conducted has increased the interest in the Indianapolis schools until football is regarded as sure to remain as a major branch of athletics in the capital city.

In 1922 several high schools started football. Jefferson of Lafayette, Marion and Muncie developed good teams.

Reports for Anderson, Crawfordsville, Bedford, Lebanon, Columbus and Vincennes indicate that authorities of these high schools are considering giving permission for the athletic directors to organize football teams during the 1923 season. These and other schools will increase the number of football teams in Indiana high schools during the 1923 season, it is expected to close to one hundred.

HAGGANNING WITH ARRELLA

Content With His Laurels

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, May 9.—Regardless of what he does in the coming British open championship, Walter Hagen, winner of the 1922 championship and the first home-bred American golfer to win the British classic, is not going back to England after this year.

Hagen thinks he reached the goal of all golfers when he annexed the British title, and he believes he is paying off any debt of courtesy that might be incumbent upon him, by going back this year and defending his title.

Bill Tilden did the same thing when he won the British tennis championship twice and, like the king of the courts, the big monarch of golf thinks that there isn't enough glory attached to grabbing the title more than twice to recompense him for his time.

Nearly everyone expects Walter to repeat his last year's victory, because he stands out now as one of the greatest players of a decade and the opposition he will be compelled to face this year may not come as much from the British quarter as it might from his own teammates.

Slump in the form of most of the leading British pros was shown recently in the Southampton tournament, the opening classic of the British season, when Abe Mitchell,

J. H. Taylor and George Duncan went out in the first round, and Edward Ray went down in the second. Hagen has become so much in demand for exhibition work in the United States that it is financially unwise for him to take up much of his time by playing on the other side.

Heavy hitting perhaps will continue indefinitely in the Yankee stadium. Not that it is a bandbox park built to make slugging less difficult, but because of the attention paid to details in building the back ground. Although it is the most valuable space in the park for advertising purposes, the Yank owners would accept no big signs for centerfield and the batter at the plate has a soft green curtain as a background to make the ball clearer in its flight from the pitcher. The bleachers are all green and turf slopes up on a grade away from the cinder track in centerfield, giving a touch of green grass color that is even less severe on the eyes than the green painted fence and bleachers.

Charley Paddock, world's champion sprinter, runs the risk of being declared a professional if he competes in the University of Paris games, according to William C. Prout, president of the A. A. U. Paddock probably will not worry, as he knows, and everyone else knows, that the A. A. U. never could get away with such a high-handed act.

Dr. O. P. Willing Advances Another Round in British Championships by Beating E. Blackwell

Francis Ouimet, Picked to Win Amateur Title, Comes Through in Easy Style in His Match

Deal, England, May 9.—Four of the six American golfers who remained in the British amateur championship today triumphed in morning matches and advanced another round.

Francis Ouimet, Dr. O. P. Willing, George V. Rotan and John F. Neville were the Yankee stars who were victorious as the field narrowed down to 32 contestants.

F. J. Wright, Los Angeles and Maxwell Marston, Philadelphia, were put out, the latter losing to Cyril Tolley.

Deal, England, May 9.—Dr. O. P. Willing of Portland, Ore., one of the other round by beating E. Blackwell, in the British championships when today's play started, advanced another round by beating E. Blackwell, of Prestwick three and two.

After a raining, stormy night, the day dawned beautiful for golf, with a light northwest wind that slightly favored the players on the outward round.

John F. Neville, San Francisco defeated W. H. Rickarde, of Worplesdon four and three.

Francis Ouimet, now picked by both British and American critics to win the amateur title, came through in easy style, beating Percy Clough of the Royal North Devon Club 5 and 3.

George V. Rotan, toll Texan, now looked upon as the most dangerous American contender after Ouimet, scored an easy triumph over F. Lee Stone, one of the British top-notchers 8 and 7.

Cards in the Willing-Blackwell match were:

|-----------|-----|-----|--------|
| Willing | 446 | 354 | 431—37 |
| Blackwell | 545 | 554 | 535—41 |

|-----------|-----|-----|------|
| Willing | 545 | 544 | 5—32 |
| Blackwell | 465 | 534 | 5—32 |

Cyril Tolley, Britain's hope, knocked out the first American to take the count today when he defeated Maxwell R. Marston, of Pine Valley, Philadelphia 3 and 2.

Douglas Grant, an American whose home is in London and whose chance are liked by many experts beat B. W. Holderness, former champion, after a hard battle 2 and 1.

Another American was put out of the running when F. J. Wright, Los Angeles lost to G. Humphries, 3 and 2.

The Score Board

(By United Press)
O'Connell's triple and a homer by Frisell accounted for three runs and the Giants won from the Cubs 4-1.

Home runs by Traynor and Grimm gave the Pirates an 8-6 victory over the Robins.

Sewell's double in the fourth inning knocked in the only run the Indians were able to get off Bob Shawkey and the Yankees won 3-2.

Dyer, a rookie pitcher playing in the field knocked a homer the first time he saw major league pitching and helped the Cardinals win from the Phils 11 to 3.

Goslin's homer with one on and one by Wade with two on helped the Senators beat the Tigers 8 to 2. Three double plays in pinches by the Washington defense pulled War-mouth out of the fire.

Rouseh got a pop fly for two bases in the ninth inning and scored on Bohne's single with the run that gave the Reds a 7-6 win from the Braves.

INJUNCTION IS DENIED
New York, May 9.—Judge Mayer this afternoon announced that the government application for an injunction to restrain the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange and the New York Coffee and Sugar Association from 'speculating in sugar prices has been denied.

Why We Selected Abercrombie Bros. to Sell NAVARRE PEARLS

A CHAIN of steel is no stronger than its weakest link. A national selling organization is judged, and rightly, too, by its local representative. Primarily, we designated this firm as distributors of Navarre Pearls because of its well-known integrity; because of its reputation as a house of fair and square dealing; because it enjoys the confidence of the people.

It is the business of lovely woman to enhance her loveliness—Navarre Pearls add wondrously to her natural charms. It is our business to submit the claims of Navarre Pearls to discriminating women through the most estimable medium; we have done so, we believe, in the selection of this reputable firm as our sole and exclusive representatives.

NEW MYSTERIES IN STUDENT SLAYING CASE

Three High School Boys Tell Evans-ton Police They Cut Hole In Pier Where Body Was Found

GRAND JURY PROBE PROCEEDS

Chicago, May 9.—New mysteries were predicted into the alleged slaying of Leighton Mount, Northwestern University freshman today.

Three high school boys, Rappael Kelly, Thomas J. Horan and Robert Knages, told Evanston police that they cut the hole in the Lake Michigan pier under which the youth's body was found. They said this was nine months after Mount's disappearance and that they used the inside of the structure for a dressing room when swimming in the lake.

Authorities believed they either played within a few feet of Mount's skeleton in the dark interior for weeks or that it was placed there after being hidden for months elsewhere.

The grand jury probe continued with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mount, Leighton's parents and Miss Doris Fuch, his sweetheart testifying.

Mrs. Mount, a tragic figure, refuted a suicide theory and declared she urged her son to join the class rush in which he is alleged to have been slain because she didn't want him to be a "sissy."

J. Allen Mills, 1921 freshman president, returned here from Akron, told state's Attorney Robert E. Crowe's investigators that after he had led a search for Mount several days that President Walter Dill

Scott of the University told him to "lay off."

Says Americans Are Becoming Dumbell Race

Chicago, May 9.—Americans are becoming a race of dumbbells.

Professor Forrest A. Kingsbury, noted psychologist of the University of Chicago, in making this assertion here today declared that tests, including military examinations during the war show that 24 percent of American men are dull, feeble minded or on the border line.

Twelve percent of the nation's male population may be rated as of "superior intelligence," he said. Kingsbury named in this class army officers, college graduates, newspapermen and professional leaders.

"The defective class is multiplying more rapidly than the others," he added. "Thus it becomes a large and increasing social menace."

Kingsbury denied that "dumbness" is confined to the voting classes. If public officials were compelled to take mental tests, city halls, court forwarded the demand to the Pekin government where it was received by the communications ministry. Through this government department the foreign legations learned of it.

Immediately an ultimatum demanding release of the captives was served on the government. The legations expressed determination to free the prisoners, even if compelled themselves to advance the money as a loan, so China could pay the ransom.

It was feared, however, petty officials of the Chinese government might connive with the bandits and increase the amount if the money was promptly put up by foreign legations. Hence the foreign ministers informed the government it must be strictly China's money from which the ransom was to be paid.

Government funds amounting a million dollars, intended for salaries of public employes and the army, were held up temporarily pending these negotiations.

98 OUT OF EVERY 100 WOMEN BENEFITED

An Absolutely Reliable Statement Important to Every Woman

Remarkable Results Shown by a Nation Wide Canvass of Women Purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. 50,000 Women Answer

"For some time a circular has been enclosed with each bottle of medicine bearing this question: 'Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?'"

Replies, to date, have been received from over 50,000 women answering that question.

98 per cent of which say YES. That means that 98 out of every 100 women who take the medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it.

This is a most remarkable record of efficiency. We doubt if any other medicine in the world equals it.

Think of it—only two women out of 100 received no benefit—98 successes out of a possible 100.

Did you ever hear anything like it? We must admit that we, ourselves, are astonished.

Such evidence should induce every woman suffering from any ailment peculiar to her sex to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see if she can't be one of the 98. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Of course we know that our medicine does benefit the large majority of women who take it. But that only two out of 100 received no benefit is most astonishing.

It only goes to prove, however, that a medicine specialized for certain definite ailments—not a cure all—one that is made by the most scientific process; not from drugs, but from a combination of nature's roots and herbs, can and does do more good than hastily prepared prescriptions.

You see, we have been making, improving and refining this medicine for over 50 years until it is so perfect and so well adapted to women's needs that it actually has the virtue to benefit 98 out of every 100 women who take it.

Its reliability and recognized efficiency has gained for it a sale in almost every country in the world—leading all others.

NEW RECORD MADE IN SALES OF STONE

Prosperity Reigns in Limestone District of State and More Men are Now Being Employed

UNABLE TO FILL ALL ORDERS

Last Year Set Record When More Than 9,500,000 Feet of Stone Was Produced—Prices Lower

Bloomington, Ind., May 9—Prosperity reigns in the limestone district of Indiana, where more men are now employed than have been for several years, and with the operating companies enjoying a rush of business that is resulting in orders being stacked up for deliveries late in the year.

Some companies report they will be unable to fill orders placed at this time until late fall or next year, and everywhere throughout the quarries of Monroe and Lawrence counties there is manifest a prosperity that exceeds any period of the past. Last year set a record when more than 9,500,000 feet of stone was produced, the largest output since 1912, but the indications now favor another new record for 1923.

The demand of last year showed a gain of 80 percent over 1921 and orders ahead for shipments in 1923 promise that unless unexpected conditions arise the output for this year will exceed that of 1922. The total value of the stone shipped in 1922 was $11,288,823, according to figures reported to by quarrymen and mill operators to the federal department of interior. The average value per cubic foot of all stone sold decreased from $1.29 in 1921 to $1.17 in 1922, with this year's prices being substantially unchanged over a year ago.

While the prosperous conditions in the stone industry, which is a big business here, affects many workers directly employed in the quarries it also has been reflected in general business conditions. The stone industry is not the only one feeling the results of prosperity, but every other line of endeavor in this locality shows a continued improvement. The big furniture factory in this city is rushed with business, and because of the difficulty of keeping a sufficient working force has started the erection of 40 homes. Many of the factory operatives live in nearby towns. General retail business shows improvement, due to the general prosperity.

BEAUTIFUL TERRE HAUTE GIRL PRAISES TANLAC FOR RECOVERY

"I have gotten such splendid results from Tanlac myself I often go out of my way to recommend it to others," recently declared Miss Frances Mae Gosnell beautiful and popular young lady of Terre Haute, Ind., residing at 1340 N. 12th St.

"I was in a badly rundown condition, suffering from indigestion, extreme nervousness and no appetite. I was losing weight, had awful headaches, and my sleep was always restless. I just felt weak and sick all the time, and was continually growing worse.

"Soon after I started taking Tanlac I began to eat with relish and then I knew I was on the right road to recovery. Sure enough, the treatment has ended my troubles and increased my weight, and I never felt better than I do now. I'm just as grateful as can be to Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

THE HOME GARDEN

POLE BEANS TO SAVE SPACE

In the very small garden, it is advisable to grow the pole varieties of string beans for the space up in the air will yield more beans than the same space upon the ground, leaving the ground for other crops to be grown between the poles. Where poles are scarce, the simplest way to grow pole beans is to set posts at each end of the row where they ground for convenience in picking. The plants should be six inches apart.

Soil for string beans should be very rich. It cannot be made too rich. One of the most effective ways to grow pole string beans is to pile well-rotted manure about the stakes as they are being set in the ground, covering the manure with from four are to grow, stretch a wire from the top of one post to the other and a similar wire about six inches from the ground, tying stout cords between the wires for the vines. The bottom wire may be omitted and a small stake may be placed by each plant to which to tie the string.

The poles should be set about two feet underground and five feet above to six inches of soil. Plant the beans four to a hill about the pole or in a row with strings as indicated.

Pole string beans, like limas, should be planted eye down to give the highest percentage of germination. The pole varieties of string beans are believed to be somewhat more tender than the dwarf or bush beans and usually are planted a little later.

Modern Cockcombs

Since the vogue of winter bouquets yellow plumes and combs is as time favorite, is coming back into its own in the flower garden. The decorative effect of a bed of these brilliant scarlet, crimson, rose and yellow plumes and combs is as striking as any annual planting that can be made. The plumed type is now more popular than the dwarf "comb", or cristata type, which has been a favorite with park gardeners for many years.

The introduction of Celosia child sili, or Chinese woodflower, with its brilliant spherical pompons terminating every branch, gave an impetus to the culture of this annual. A new type known as chrysanthellora has appeared in a striking series of colors, the compact round heads of bloom suggesting the chrysanthemum. As they dry without losing their brilliant coloring, they have become very popular.

A still later type is the parrot's feather, which shows a combination of the plumed type often topped by a comb of the old-fashioned type. This type shows a striking series of colors and at once attracts attention wherever grown. The Pride of Castle Gould plumed type still remains a favorite.

The seed of these types may be started indoors or in the open ground as soon as danger of frost is over, and the plants transplanted to their permanent beds. In most cases of this plant the color of the bloom or plume will be shown by the stem coloring almost as soon as the seeds germinate.

They should be planted from 15 inches to 2 feet apart, if the plant is to develop the side shoots and the pyramidal growth which make it one of the most ornamental and striking annuals in the garden. The cockscomb is not so particular as to soil, but will respond to fertilizing. It should be watered freely in dry spells, especially when the plumes are showing, to permit their full development. They should be cut before the lower portions turn dingy, if they are to be dried for winter bouquets.

Lots of folks kill eggplants by setting them in soil in which there is fresh manure. Stable manure should never be used on an eggplant. Give it a commercial fertilizer strong in potash.

Start a few plants of kale for winter greens this spring. This is a neglected vegetable that comes in handy. It can be picked when the leaves are frozen stiff all winter. Cultivate and spray it like a cabbage.
